Announcement

O BREEDERS OF RED WHITE AND ROANS, I am offering at public auction 42 head of Short Horns on May 19, 1915. This will be my third annual sale, and the offering will consist of 32 females and 10 bulls. They are practically all of Scotch breeding, descending from the best and most noted families of the famous breed.

My herd bulls, True Cumberland 3d 353220, a Secret by True Cumberland, and Princely Sultan 350513, a Broadhooks by Whitehall Sultan, are classed by competent Judges of Short Horns to be two of the leading herd bulls of this country. There will be seven calves at foot, and the other females old enough will be bred to one or the other of my herd bulls. I think this is a good time to invest in some richly bred Scotch cattle. I extend a cordial invitation to every one to attend the sale whether or not you intend to buy. Come and spend the day, give us a visit, get acquainted and see the cattle.

Yours respectfully,
WM. HERKELMANN.

Accommodations

Sale will be held in my new pavilion. No postponement on account of weather. No pains spared to make it pleasant for all. Free transportation will be furnished to and from the farm. Parties from a distance will be my guests at the hotel. Lunch will be served at 11:30 o'clock. Sale to begin promptly at one o'clock.

Terms

Guarantee

Cows with calf at foot or showing plainly in calf no further guarantee will be given. Cows and heifers sold as bred will be guaranteed breeders. Should any recently bred fail to settle, purchaser will try for six months and if she fails to settle she may be returned to me in as good condition as when sold, and I reserve the right to have her returned to me for ninety days trial, if we succeed in getting her in calf she will be returned to purchaser at his expense; otherwise money will be refunded.

All bulls guaranteed on same conditions. Cattle to be loaded on cars free of charge, but will be at purchaser's risk as soon as bid off.

Ruby Goods 127874—was a member of my show herds 1913 and 1914, having many prizes to her credit. Bred to True Cumberland 3d, December 19th.

The Mazurka Tribe—the Mazurka tribe descended from one of the choicest Short Horns ever imported. Wm. Warfield writing for The Breeders' Gazette at Chicago, said of her: "She was one of the most perfect cows ever in America. * * * Her ribs sprang out with a noble arch that gave room for sound lungs and heart, and seemed to give room without to set a dining table on." Her back and flank excited the admiration of all who saw her. She was a roan cow, out of the dam of Mr. Cruickshank's Matadore (11800), and was imported by the Northern Kentucky company in 1853, subsequently passing into the possession of Mr. R. A. Alexander of Woodburn Farm, in whose hands she gave rise to one of the most noted tribes of Short Horns. Some of the most famous of our show and breeding bulls have descended from her, among others the great Muscatoon, Mr. Hamton's Geneva Lad, and Judge Jones' Mazurka Duke of Airdrie. Cows of the family have sold for good prices, Mazurka 36th making $4,005.

Ruberta's Goods 283807—was shown as a calf and was first and junior champion, at Nebraska State fair, and was champion at the American Royal the same year, an honor never awarded a bull of his age before or since. Imp. Queen of Beauty—calved December 6, 1869, and imported in July 1871, by Shaw & Dryden of Ontario, Canada. She was bred by Amos Cruickshank of Sittyton, Scotland, and is from the same foundation as his noted Orange Blossoms. Sanders' History says: "Queen of the South was one of the greatest cows of her day in all Scotland". She was a roan of splendid flesh and substance. She won first prize at the Royal Northern in 1862, and the Society's Medal as the best animal at the show. One of the best of all the latter day Scotch sires, William of Orange, owned by Mr. Marr, is of this family. There are no better individuals of better bred Scotch Short Horns in America than some of the descendants of Imp. Queen or Beauty.
